

RED DISK

Gretchen Weidner

PAINTER. MURALIST. EDUCATOR.

IT ALL STARTED... in my grandmother's kitchen sharpening crayons with butter knives for coloring contests at local stores in Eden, New York. I printed my own coloring books at age 8 and sold a painting at 16. I attended Art school at Alfred University and received my MA at Buffalo State College. At my final critique my professor explained, "I'll see your work in a museum some day!"
