

RED DISK

Patricia Roberts

FASHION ILLUSTRATOR

IT ALL STARTED... Patricia graduated from Girls' Vocational High School in 1953 and took an apprenticeship at Wm. Hengerer and Co. which led to positions as Fashion Illustrator at L.L.Berger–Buffalo, and freelance in Chicago. She finished her career back in Buffalo at AM&A's. She was also a freelance illustrator for Gibson Greeting Cards and Fisher Price.

*Born July 4, 1935
in Buffalo, NY*

HUNDREDS OF GESTURES IN PENCIL AND INK

A former member of the Williamsville Art Society

"She was always humble about her talent and the fact that she was self-taught."

KERRY LEAHY, PATRICIA'S DAUGHTER

INFLUENCES Edgar Degas, Gustav Klimt, and John Singer Sargent

PERFECT DAY Spending time with family, caring for animals, and being surrounded by nature

